

The Palm Beach 2007 International Entrepreneurial and Philanthropy Awards

Photos by: Chris Fay

Gail Worth, Rhonda Clinton and Leo Albert of Easter Seals , graciously accept their Award from Sonny Sethi.

Yolanda Kluge, and Karen, Director of Beyond Art Gallery assist Sonny in presenting David Mc Court with a much deserved Award.

Steve Sims, President of Blue Fish, receiving his award from Sonny Sethi, CEO of Tara and Sons. Gerard Mc Keon, Publisher of Black Tie International Magazine.

Steve Sims, has created a world class Concierge company that reflects his own unique and fun approach to life. Blue Fish is a welcome addition to the best events.

Contact: www.thebluefish.com

Easter seals is one of the best run and hardest working Foundations on the Island. They bring a style and elegance to their warm and welcoming events

Contact: www.fl.easterseals.com

David Mc Court turned the grief of a terrible personal tragedy into the remarkable Juliana Valentine Mc Court Children's Education Fund. A remarkable achievement by this remarkable man

Contact: www.julianamcourt.org

Black Tie International Magazine
Congratulates the 2007 Honorees

The Awards are presented annually to a distinguished group of honorees who exemplify how personal enterprise and drive contribute to the Palm Beach Community.

Special Thanks to Sonny Sethi, CEO of Tara and Sons for co-hosting the Evening, and to Karen and Terry of Beyond Art.

Nominations are welcome for next years Awards.
Please e-mail: palmbeach@blacktiemagazine.com