The Orpheus Chamber Orchestra presented an evening of classical and popular music for their Annual Gala at The Metropolitan Club. The festivities began at 6:30 p.m. with cocktails in the Grand Foyer. A private concert at 7:30p.m. followed and featured special guest soloist, singer Mary Cleere Haran, and preeminent dance band leader Peter Duchin, with members of Orpheus Chamber Orchestra. The program, titled New York, New York: From Tin Pan Alley to Carnegie Hall included works by Copland, Gershwin, Ellington, Scott, Bernstein and Sondheim.

The exclusive, black tie event included a seated dinner at 8:30p.m. The gala Honoree was John C. Whitehead. Gala Co-Chairs were Heidi Neuhoff and Lizabeth and Frank Newman; Honorary Gala Chairs were Edmund C. Duffy, Trustee of the Peter J. Sharp Foundation, and Tan Dun, award-winning composer and conductor.

Orpheus Chamber Orchestra's Annual Gala brings to life and demonstrates, in an intimate setting, the authentic passion that has made Orpheus and John C. Whitehead synonymous with innovation and excellence in New York and around the globe. The Annual Gala is a major fundraising event and all proceeds support their extensive touring schedule, as well as artistic and education programs, helping integrate classical music into the lives of the next generation.
