

The Sugar Cane Ball

Photos by: Stanford Brown

Mrs. Charles Gwathmey, Ralph Lauren, Ricky Lauren and Charles Gwathmey

Ambassador Mary and Mr. Mandy Ourisman

Ragni Trotta, Michele Rollins and Rob Trotta

Round Hill Hotel & Villas in Montego Bay, Jamaica, raised a record amount during the annual Sugar Cane Ball. Honorary Chairs of the festivities and fashion designer Ralph Lauren and his wife Ricky were in attendance along with numerous diplomats, socialites, business leaders from the US, Europe and Jamaica who gathered at the world renowned resort for a weekend of festivities to raise money and awareness for hanover Charities.

“The deep pockets of movers and shakers to contribute so much at such a sensitive time proves that altruism remains a value. This Valentine’s Day is not just appreciating your significant other but to spread that love and generosity to everyone. Gives us hope in these tough times” said chairman of the event Katrin Casserly. Hanover Charities, located in Hanover Parish, is one of the largest charitable organizations in Jamaica. The charity provides its neighbors with reading and computer skills, funds the soup kitchen and health clinics, supply basics to the disabled and elderly and contributes to scholarships for local students.

www.hanovercharities.com