Guild Hall lit up the summer night with it's 75th Anniversary Summer Gala. Featured was a sneak-peek cocktail reception of the groundbreaking Andy Warhol and Elizabeth Peyton exhibitions at Guild Hall, followed by an elegant dinner, live auction and even livelier dancing with Peter Duchin and the Peter Duchin Orchestra, America's preeminent society swing band, at Mulford Farm. Discover Your Own Private Africa

Exclusively Yours: The New Shakawa Lodge & Game Reserve; The Perfect, Private Retreat for Family, Friends or Colleagues.

Deep in the midst of South Africa's lush, verdant wilderness, in Limpopo Province, lies Shakawa Lodge & Game Reserve. A totally secure, private retreat with six luxury suites, accommodating up to twelve discerning guests. With the highest standards of civility and confidentiality. Since the estate is rented in toto, you are in complete control. Go for a swim. Sleep in. (But for the best game viewing it's best to start at dawn, well before the animals seek shelter from the mid-day sun.) Enjoy a spa day. Sharpen your eye target shooting. Learn archery. Dine early, or late. Relax with a movie. Even e-mail your safari photos to friends back home. To learn more about this great escape, visit our website, then e-mail or call for our free DVD which conveys some of the excitement that surrounds Shakawa. By the way, Shakawa means 'peaceful haven' in the local dialect. And now you're about to find yours.
