Music Legend Clive Davis joined Stephen Marriott, Hollywood Producer Marty Richards, News Channel 4 anchor Chuck Scarborough and many other celebrities and honorees for the "Music of Winternight" Gala at The New York Marriott, March 7, 2007. The event attracted more than 750 people and raised one million dollars for Lighthouse programs which serve people with visual impairments.

Founded in 1905, Lighthouse International is a leading non-profit organization dedicated to preserving vision and to providing critically needed health care services to help people of all ages overcome challenges of vision loss. Through services, education, research and advocacy, the Lighthouse enables people with low vision and blindness to enjoy safe, independent and productive lives. For more information about vision loss, its causes and what you can do about it, please contact Lighthouse International at 1 800 829 0500 or visit www.visionconnection.org.
