Happy Birthday Sylvia!

You taught us to dance before we could walk
To sing Broadway tunes soon after we talked.

You shared your adoration of beaches and love of the sea
Along with your appreciation of fine jewelry

We marveled as you traveled the world with both open eyes and mind
Talking to everyone. You never know who or what you will find.

You delight in meeting people from points near and far
And staying in touch from wherever you are Constantly connecting with old friends and new Everyone marvels at how much you can do

At 20 years old you drove on your own alone across the US of A
At that point you didn't yet have your white Chevrolet

You did it so you could be with your pilot, your groom
Before he left for the Pacific
You stayed with strangers, shared a room

You wrangled a job as the base general's private driver
To get a good glimpse of Jerry, the flier

On ferries to Fire Island, slow boats to China or speed boats in Capri,
Nothing compared to your love of your boat, the Sylbea

You dressed to the nines with your own sense of style
Topping every great outfit with a dazzling smile.

Our home was so lovely---modern art and design
Another way in which you were ahead of your time

You brought us along to visit those who were ill
We saw how your warmth helped to get rid of their chill

You could never stay mad because life is too short
And you chose words of kindness instead of retorts.

You modeled for us being loyal and true When you cared for our dad who meant the world to you.

You continue to show us that life is for living
So please keep yourself well so you can continue the giving.

With Love Daryl & Dale
