Mrs. Elke Geacintov and Dr. Cyril Geacintov, President of The Russian Nobility Association in America, Inc.

Over 600 guests many of whom had flown over specially from Russia, enjoyed a fantastic evening of world class performances and inspiring insight into Russian-American Relations at Cipriani's on 42nd Street, NY.

Dr. Henry Kissinger spoke of the great successes and wonderful achievements that have been a product of this co-operation over the last many years. He expressed the thoughts of many in the room when he expressed his wish for a continually developing dialogue to counter the problems we will face in an increasingly volatile and unnerving future.

The Honorable George.E.Pataki, pointed out the significant contributions of the Russian community to New York, and expressed his hope that the " Day of Russia in New York" would grow to be a national celebration.

His Excellency Yuri.V. Ushakov, Mr. Anatoli S. Karpov, and Ioori Smirnov, represented the many faces of Russia in America, and did a wonderful job making the guests feel welcome. For more information please call 646 338 2185 or info@globeprgroup.com
