For all those people who believe it is better to give than receive, I salute you. It is always a pleasure to write this column and pay tribute to the people and the worthwhile organizations that are so deserving of recognition for the time and efforts they put forth. Never forgotten are the sponsors, who without their support, charitable organizations would not survive.

YOUNG MUSICIANS FOUNDATION (YMF) has been a national treasure and the Beverly Hills "Home Team" for 49 years. Founded in 1955, YMF is one of the oldest and most respected organizations on the West Coast, serving young musicians both locally and nationwide by providing performance opportunities, financial assistance and musical education programs at all stages of development.

CHILDREN UNITING NATIONS is a Los Angeles based charity that ia a progressive voice for children at risk with a primary focus on children out of home care. Annually organizing the "Day of the Child" event, pairing foster children with individuals and celebrities with the goal of bringing permanent mentors into the lives of children facing a childhood apart from a family context.

MAIMONIDES ACADEMY is a local co-educational Jewish day school with an attendance of 450 children. BT
