

Citymeals-on-Wheels “Power Lunch for Women”

Martha Stewart, Marcia Stein and Lynda Resnick. Photo by: Star Black

Hundreds of New York's most powerful and influential women from the worlds of business, media, government, publishing and the arts gathered at the Rainbow Room for the Citymeals-on-Wheels 22nd annual "Power Lunch for Women." Emceed by Diana L. Taylor, Managing Director of Wolfensohn & Company, the annual benefit honored Martha Stewart, Founder of Martha Stewart Living Omnimedia, Inc. and Lynda Resnick, FIJI Water/POM Wonderful for their long standing commitment to Citymeals and the elderly population. The event raised $1.5 million-or enough money to hand deliver 235,000 meals for New York's frail, homebound aged.

For a ticket price of $10,000 male attendees had the privilege of choosing which powerful and famous woman would be their lunch partner. Among this year's "10K Men" were Michael Batterberry, Albert Behler, Andrew Borrok, Joseph Cohen, Bill Fischer, Bobby Flay, Peter Glazier, Robert Grimes, Michael Lynne, Michael Norris, Craig Pfeiffer, John Pomerantz, Dennis Riese, Lee Schrage, John Shapiro, Donald Tober and Steven Zavagli.

One hundred percent of the money raised from ticket sales at Power Lunch, and all Citymeals' events, goes to the preparation and delivery of nutritious meals to homebound elderly in the five boroughs of New York City.

For more information please visit: www.citymeals.org

Donald Tober and Cindy Adams. Photo by: Star Black

Liz Smith and Bernadette Peters. Photo by: Ann Watt