

'EAT ... DRINK ... GLOW'

Themed the Official Grand Opening of
Boca Tanning Club, Wilton Manors

Photos by: Brent Jenkins

Oona O'Connell, Lauren Stoner

Shafia Cheema, Danielle Dahan, Michelle Clavette and Tom Bhegani

Brandy Smith, Jennifer Morgret and Debbie Kwon

Jamie Martorana, Talia Sabo, Jessica Eisenberg

Largest tanning salon in the Southeast hosts
GLOW

A lavish red carpet opening complete with fire dancers, sun gods and perfectly bronzed male models...

and treatment for young victims of child abuse. KID is a community-supported agency providing services for the prevention and treatment of child abuse in South Florida.

Nikki Beach DJ Johnny Ramirez played a soothing mix of electro house and European dance tracks as an exclusive, all-male Red Carter Swimwear fashion show rocked the red carpet for outdoor partygoers.

The look of the night? Definitely tan. Models from Elite and other area agencies glistened a St. Tropez glow thanks to advance courtesy tans provided by Boca Tanning's new VersaSpa Spray Tan booth. Perhaps most memorable of all was runway pet model Lucia, a strikingly cute Maltese provided by the PAWsarazzi pet modeling agency at Chateau Poochie, the world's most exclusive hotel for dogs and cats launching in Lighthouse Point this summer.

Wilton Manors, Ft. Lauderdale., FL June 29, 2007 — Boca Tanning Club of Wilton Manors, the largest and most exclusive tanning salon in the South East, featuring its own anti-oxidant juice bar and street chic fashion boutique officially opened doors Friday, June 29th with a lavish GLOW themed event hosted by The Gab Group, the area's most prominent party coordinators.

GLOW was an evening full of addicting energy and high fashion. Over 300 area guests attended including Wilton Manors Mayor Scott Newton as sun-drenched models outfitted in one-of-a-kind Red Carter swimsuits served endless flutes of Moet & Chandon champagne, delectable hors d'oeuvres by Word of Mouth and America's favorite guilty pleasure... original glazed Krispy Kreme doughnuts.

Evening proceeds helped to benefit Kids in Distress (KID), a 501 c3 charitable agency with the primary goal of providing early intervention