

Big Brothers Big Sisters of New York City

28th Annual Sidewalks of New York Dinner

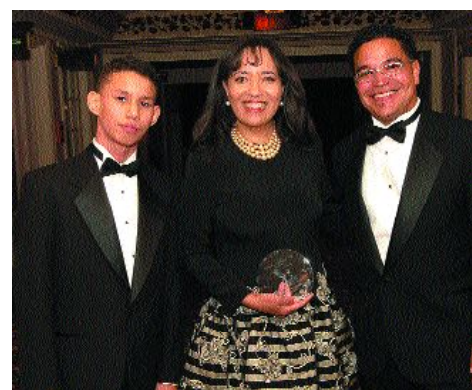

Chad Pennington, Julie Chen, Leslie Moonves and Edward Gardner. Photo by: Chris London

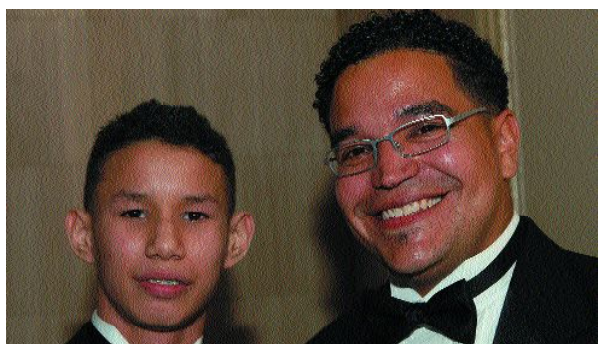

Delfina Simon (Little), Leslie Moonves and Ellen Fuhrer(Big). Photo by: Horton Photographers-Matt Cottom

New York, April 23, 2007. Big Brothers Big Sisters of New York City held their 28th Annual Sidewalks of New York Dinner at the Waldorf Astoria. The evening honored three individuals who are role models for the youth helped by the nation's first mentoring organization. The agency honored CBS Corporation President & CEO, Leslie Moonves with the Sidewalks of NY Achievement in Business Award and the Sports Award was presented to New York Jets Quarterback, Chad Pennington. The dinner was chaired by William C. Freda, Vice Chairman and Regional Managing Partner - Northeast at Deloitte & Touche USA LLP.

The awards were presented to the honorees by two teenagers and one young woman and their mentors. Both the Bigs and the Littles prepared their own remarks which made these presentations quite unique and memorable. The event raised over $1.8 million dollars for programs to help NYC youth.

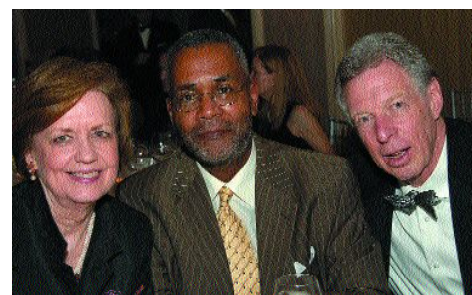

Andrew Claros (Little), Pamela Thomas-Graham and Rodney Mendez (Big). Photo by: Horton Photographers-Matt Cottom

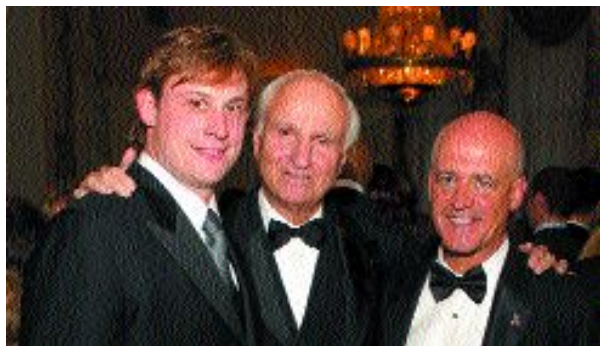

Andrew Claros (Little) and Rodney Mendez (Big Bros.) Photo by: Horton Photographers-Matt Cottom

For more information please visit: www.BigsNYC.org or call
888-BigsNYC

Libby Costas, Ken Knuckles and Allan Luks, Executive Director, Big Bros. Big Sisters NYC. Photo by: Horton Photographers-Matt Cottom

Chad Pennington, Edward Gardner, Chairman Emeritus Big Bros, Big Sisters of NYC and William Freda, Dinner Chair Photo by: Chris London

Gary Pai, (Big) Jason Gamble (Little) and Chad Pennington rehearsing presentation speech. Photo by: Chris London

Robin and Chad Pennington. Photo by: Horton Photographers-Matt Cottom