

Unicorn's Children Foundation

Photos courtesy of Blacktie-South Florida:

Event chairs Renata Moulavi, and Joanne Gabay with Donald Trump

The transformation of Mar-a-Lago into an elegant nightclub provided the perfect backdrop for the arrival of Mr. Donald J. Trump, whose wife Melania served as honorary chair of The Fabulous You!

Benefiting the Boca Raton, Florida-based Unicorn Children's Foundation, the evening opened with a high-energy fashion show featuring models elegantly accessorized with diamonds by Rosenberg Diamonds & Co. Fashions were generously provided by designers that included House of Bogosse, Fiandaca, Pamela Roland, and Brian Reyes.

Guests were then escorted from the grand ballroom by costumed Brazilian dancers who brought them poolside to enjoy music, dancing and sumptuous desserts as the casino came alive. Players rolled the dice in the Game of Chance in the hopes that they would win the 2009 Aston Martin, generously provided by Palm Beach Motor Cars.

Established in 1995, The Unicorn Children's Foundation is a Boca Raton-based non-profit organization that promotes and supports education, awareness and research initiatives on behalf of individuals and developmental, communication and learning challenges. The work of the Foundation fosters coordination between parents, professionals and policy makers to ensure that those children affected receive the resources necessary to help them reach their full potential through adulthood.

For more information please visit:

www.unicornchildrensfoundation.org

Yetta Bregman and Irving Sandorf

Robert and Elisabeth Dalfen

Board member David Rosenberg is welcomed to The Fabulous You!

Dr. and Mrs. Gary Sheik and Board of Directors Co-President Juliette and David Ezagui. The Ezagui's were honored at the event as the Unicorn's 2008-2009 Grand Ambassadors.